

WestAfricaENRG

Valuable waste fraction Feedstock for industry

WestAfricaENRG sorts and sells all our valuable fraction within Nigeria.

The valuable waste fraction in Nigerian MSW is in excess of 85%. We are able to sort and return for recycling into local industry more than 45% of the materials minimising their cost of raw materials, maximising the positive environmental effects to the Environment and maximising our customers production utilisation, the high hydrocarbon residual is used as RDF for Waste to Energy.

Our customers, include paper mills, plastic moulded and blown manufactures and smelters throughout Nigeria.

www.westafricaenrg.com