

Female Empowerment Across all the skill levels

Female empowerment is critical to the economic development of West Africa

Creating jobs across the whole skill levels and providing education training to all our staff is paramount to development.

72% of our staff are female and work across all levels within our organisation, 95% of those female live within the local communities; saving and spending within the locality further supports the communities, their families and local business'.

www.westafricaenrg.com